SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant must participate in and successfully complete an outpatient substance abuse treatment program, approved by the probation officer, which may include testing. The defendant is prohibited from obstructing or attempting to obstruct or tamper, in any fashion, with the collection, efficiency and accuracy of any substance abuse testing device or procedure. The defendant may be required to pay a portion of the cost of treatment and/or drug testing to be determined by the Probation Office. [This condition is imposed based on reports of the defendant's use of opiates and methamphetamine.]

The defendant must participate in an educational or vocational program as approved by the probation officer. [This condition is imposed to help the defendant obtain his G.E.D. and assist the defendant with reintegration back to society.]

The defendant must submit to a search of his person, property, or automobile under his control to be conducted in a reasonable manner and at a reasonable time, for the purpose of detecting firearms, weapons, alcohol, illicit substances, or any contraband at the direction of the probation officer. He must inform any residents that the premises may be subject to a search. [This condition is imposed to ensure the defendant's compliance with his other conditions. This condition is also imposed for the safety of the supervising officer, as the instant offense involved the possession of a firearm.]

The defendant must refrain from the use and possession of alcohol and other forms of intoxicants. [This condition is imposed based on the defendant's history of alcohol and substance abuse issues.]

The defendant must participate in and successfully complete an outpatient mental health treatment program approved by the probation officer. The defendant may be required to pay a portion of the cost of this treatment to be determined by the Probation Office. [This condition is imposed based on the defendant's reported history of abuse, reported mental health issues, and his history of violent offenses.]

The defendant shall reside at and complete a program at a Residential Reentry Center approved by the probation officer for a period of up to 5 months.

The defendant shall not have any contact with identified members of the Surenos gang or any other gang affiliation.
